

General Intro for Vickie Mullins

Vickie Mullins is the founder and president of Mullins Creative, an 18 year-old, award-winning Scottsdale company that writes, designs, and prints business communications.

Vickie's passion for her family and friends were the catalysts for an unplanned second career as she fulfilled a promise to a dying friend. In 2005 she started her second company, a publishing firm, on the heels of authoring a series of eight books. She now shepherds authors through the process of becoming self-publishers themselves.

An Arizona resident since 1956, Vickie earned her bachelor's degree in journalism, with an emphasis in advertising and marketing, from Northern Arizona University.

Vickie and Jack, her groom of 30 years, live in Scottsdale. They have two grown children and spend what spare time they have involved at their church or volunteering for the American Diabetes Association.
